

Market commentary: The VN-INDEX neared three-week high, Real Estate stocks fueled the gain

Vietnam's stock market extended its upward momentum on Tuesday after posting the biggest rise since Aug 2001 in the previous session, with the VN-INDEX ending near a three-week high on support from Real Estate stocks. Following an impressive rally of U.S. stocks the previous night when the Dow Jones Industrials Average Index gained 1,627.5pts (+7.7%) on hopes the COVID-19 mortality rate would be slowing in the United States, the VN-INDEX edged up right at the start of the trading session. It then successfully kept the upward momentum intact towards the session end, despite strong profit taking activities on some large caps after Monday's jump. Today's advance was mainly contributed by Real Estate large caps. Specifically, VHM and VRE attracted huge demand from investors and closed at their ceiling prices, together adding 5.1pts to the index. Strong support also came from the Consumer Staples and Retail sectors, led by VNM (+2.4%), SAB (+3.8%) and MWG (+6.7%). On the other hand, some blue chips fell under strong selling pressure, including PLX (-3.1%), CTG (-1.2%) and BHN (-6.9%). However, these laggards were surpassed by other bullish large caps. As a result, the VN-INDEX made its fifth rise in a row to land at 746.7pts (+1.4%), the highest level since 18 Mar when it closed at 747.7pts, and the HNX-INDEX edged up 0.2% to end at 103.4pts.

Consumer Discretionary (+4.0%), Real Estate (+2.6%) and Consumer Staples (+2.5%) rose, while only Energy (-2.3%) dropped. Top index movers included VHM (+7.0%), VNM (+2.4%) and VRE (+7.0%), SAB (+3.8%) and MWG (+6.7%). Top index laggards consisted of PLX (-3.1%), CTG (-1.2%), BHN (-6.9%), GVR (-1.5%) and HVN (-1.7%). Top three major put-through transactions were GAB with 0.9m shares (VND124.0bn), VNM with 0.9m shares (VND89.6bn), and VPB with 2.1m shares (VND39.2bn).

Foreigners net sold on HOSE to the amount of VND349.3bn, and also net sold on HNX to the amount of VND2.7bn. They mainly bought VNM (VND207.8bn), VIC (VND54.2bn), and VPB (VND45.6bn); and mainly sold VIC (VND257.9bn), VNM (VND179.1bn) and VPB (VND45.5bn).

Market News

Oil edges higher as producers move toward deal to curb output. Oil resumed gains on signs the world's biggest producers are moving toward a deal to call off their price war and cut output as the coronavirus eviscerates energy demand around the world. Futures in New York rose toward US$27 a barrel, resuming a rally interrupted by an 8% decline on Monday. Energy Secretary Dan Brouillette held a "productive discussion" over the phone with his Saudi counterpart Prince Abdulaziz bin Salman, the U.S. government said. Crude was also buoyed by improved sentiment in broader financial markets after the reported death tolls in some of the virus hotspots in Europe showed signs of easing. (Bloomberg)

Vietnam: Ministry proposes cutting taxes for transport firms. The Ministry of Transport has proposed the government assign the Ministry of Finance to consider reducing several taxes for transport businesses affected by COVID-19. For the civil aviation industry, the ministry has suggested the government to exempt import and environmental protection taxes on flight fuel from January 23 to December 31, 2020. In case of difficulties balancing the budget, the ministry expected the government to cut half of these taxes and allow businesses to delay tax payments and budget contributions. The ministry also asked for reduced or suspended payments for corporate income, personal income and foreign contractor taxes from January 23 to December 31, 2020. Businesses are expected to enjoy cuts to value-added tax on domestic transport over three years. Last month, the ministry said the aviation sector would be heavily impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, causing an estimated loss of about VND30tr (US$1.29m). National flag carrier Vietnam Airlines, which holds nearly 40% of the domestic market share, recently said that it would reduce its supply by 60%, causing a decrease of VND50tr in revenue, or 65% of its target. More than 50% of Vietnam Airlines employees had stopped working, while wages had been reduced. In the maritime sector, the ministry said the number of vessels transporting goods entering and leaving ports had decreased by 15% in recent months. As for passenger ships from other countries to Vietnam, the number had fallen 30% year-on-year, and was expected to fall further this month. Meanwhile, the volume of inland waterway and freight had fallen by 10%. Revenue from road logistics had fallen sharply by 40-80% compared to the same period last year and prior to the outbreak.
