

Market commentary: Vietnam's stock market extended decline as large caps faced strong selling pressure.

The VN-INDEX lost 0.5% as selling pressure remained strong ahead of a market holiday, having pulled down many large caps. Shortly after the opening bell, the VN-INDEX climbed to its intraday high of 776.1 (+0.7%) thanks to strong support from Banking stocks, led by VCB (+0.3%), BID (+0.1%), CTG (+1.1%) and TCB (+0.3%). Fishery stocks extended their winning streak as demand in key export markets such as China and the United States showed signs of recovery since Mar 2020. ANV made an impressive rise of 5.4%, followed by VHC (+1.5%) and MPC (+2.5%). Moreover, several mid-caps such as DBC, DCM and FCN hit the ceiling price. However, the index gradually lost steam towards the end of the trading session as many large caps experienced strong selling pressure. SAB became the index's largest laggard, falling 5.6%, followed by VNM (-2.2%). Other market pillars joined the slide and kept the VN-INDEX in red during the afternoon session, including GAS (-2.2%), VRE (-3.2%) and HPG (-2.5%). At the close, the VN-INDEX lost 3.6pts (-0.5%) to land at 767.2pts, while the HNX-INDEX stood nearly unchanged at 106.3pts. Vietnam's stock market will close on Thursday and Friday to mark the Liberation Day and the Labour Day.

Health Care (+2.1%) and Financials (+0.2%) rose, while Consumer Staples (-2.0%), Energy (-1.4%) and Materials (-1.0%) lost ground. Top index movers included MSN (+2.0%), POW (+4.0%), CTG (+1.1%), VCB (+0.3%) and GVR (+1.4%). Top index laggards consisted of SAB (-5.6%), VNM (-2.2%), GAS (-2.2%), VRE (-3.2%) and HPG (-2.5%). Top three major put-through transactions were EIB with 8.5m shares (VND 136.2bn), MSN with 0.7m shares (VND 43.4bn) and VRE with 1.3m shares (VND 28.7bn).

Foreigners net sold on HOSE to the amount of VND396bn, and also net sold on HNX to the amount of VND12.6bn. They mainly bought VNM (VND55.4bn), VRE (VND35.2bn) and HDB (VND20.8bn); and mainly sold VNM (VND110.7bn), VRE (VND94.3bn) and VCB (VND92bn).

Market News

Oil extends drop near US$11 as ETF selloff exacerbates volatility

Crude extended its slide to trade near US$11/barrel after the biggest oil exchange-traded fund unexpectedly began selling all its holdings of the most active contract amid rapidly dwindling storage capacity.

Futures fell about 11% in New York after losing a quarter of their value on Monday. The United States Oil Fund LP sold all of its West Texas Intermediate June contracts, significantly widening the spread between July WTI and raising concerns of a repeat of the collapse that sent oil below zero for the first time ever last week. U.S. producers have started making crude deliveries to the nation's emergency stockpile as storage space runs out.

South Korea, which holds the fourth-biggest commercial storage capacity in Asia, was said to have run out of onshore space run by two big operators, while Singapore's coastline has become even more congested with oil-laden tankers. In order to avoid the U.S. hub of Cushing from becoming more than 90% full in May and June, total production shut-ins would have to equate to 1 million barrels a day this month, according to JPMorgan Chase & Co.

West Texas Intermediate for June delivery dropped US$1.43 to US$11.35/barrel on the New York Mercantile Exchange as of 1:50 p.m. Singapore time after slumping as low as US$10.64 earlier. Futures fell US$4.16 on Monday to close at US$12.78. The gap with the July contract widened to more than US$7/barrel. Brent for June settlement slipped 72 cents to US$19.27 after declining 6.8% the previous day. Dated Brent, a reference for nearly two-thirds of the world's physical oil flows, dropped to US$13.62 on Monday, from US$16.01 on Friday, according to traders monitoring prices from S&P Global Platts. ### Exports of agricultural, forestry and aquatic products fall

Vietnam recorded a total US$21.1bn in import-export value of agricultural, forestry and fishery products in the first four months of this year, according to a report of the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development (MARD).

Exports hit US$11.9bn, down 4.9% yoy, while imports were US$9.17bn, down 5.2%.

Nguyễn Văn Giang, an official from the MARD's Communication Office, said most export items decreased in turnover, except for coffee, cashews, vegetables, wood and wood products, cinnamon, rattan and bamboo. Giang said China still occupied the largest market share of 23.4%, with turnover of nearly US$2.8bn, down 17.7% yoy. It was followed by the US with US$2.78bn, down 13.9%, occupying 23.33% of market share and the EU with US$1.3bn, down 1.9% and accounting for 10.75% of market share.

Meanwhile, exports to Japan hit nearly US$1.1bn, up 2.9%, accounting for 9% of market share, and exports to ASEAN countries were nearly US$1.3bn, up 7.1% and making up 10.49% of market share.

Nguyễn Quốc Toàn, head of the MARD's Department of Farm Product Processing and Market Development, said the ministry is working with the Ministry of Industry and Trade, agencies and businesses to monitor changes in prices in the market.

"We continuously update the supply and demand of domestic essential agricultural products, including rice, pork, vegetables, seafood, sugar and salt, to help balance the market, ensuring food security but still maintaining exports of agricultural products," Toàn said.

"We will improve the quality of market forecasts and inform localities and businesses to have appropriate production and business plans," he added.

He said the ministry will also build plans and scenarios for exporting agricultural products to meet rising demand after China tackles the COVID-19 pandemic and focus on addressing technical barriers, negotiating market expansions to the EU countries, Eurasian Economic Union, the US and Brazil. ### Notable Corporate Events

Vincom Retail Joint Stock Company (VRE VN HOSE) – 1Q20 Business result: VRE's net revenue and net profit in 1Q20 declined 26% yoy and 19% yoy, respectively, to VND1,685bn and VND492bn, a company report said. The lower earnings were in place because of a fall in real estate sales while the coronavirus outbreak led to the suspension for nearly a month of the company's 23 commercial centres in Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City.
