

Market commentary: The VN-INDEX dropped 0.4% on widespread selling

The VN-INDEX closed down 0.4% on Thursday despite early gains as selling pressure overwhelmed nearly all the market sectors. The fall of Vietnam's main stock index mirrored global stock markets, where the Dow Jones Industrials Average index lost 0.3% the previous night, while the Nikkei 225 fell 1.0% and the Hang Seng lost 1.5% today after the Federal Reserve's July meeting outlined a cautious view toward the U.S. economy. The VN-INDEX opened with optimistic sentiment and quickly climbed to its intraday peak of 857.0pts (+0.7%), having extended its rise in the previous session. However selling pressure emerged and targeted almost all large caps, thus easily erasing all their early gains. GAS suffered a huge loss, closing at its intraday low of VND71,000 (-1.5%). Other large caps also lost their ground such as VIC (-0.6%), BID (-0.9%) and MSN (-1.3%). Finally, the VN-INDEX edged down 0.4% to close at 848.2pts, while the HNX-INDEX gained 2.0pts (+1.7%) to end at 121.2pts, thanks mostly to strong support from ACB (+5.6%).

Only IT (+0.7%) rose, while Energy (-1.4%), Utilities (-1.4%), and Materials (-0.4%) lost ground today. Top index movers included GVR (+1.7%), KDC (+4.8%), LGC (+3.5%), TPB (+1.2%) and CAV (+4.5%). Top index laggards consisted of GAS (-1.5%), VIC (-0.6%), BID (-0.9%), PLX (-1.4%), and MSN (-1.3%). Top three major put-through transactions were VHM with 22.7m shares (VND1703.4bn), VGC with 6.3m shares (VND145.3bn), and NHH with 7.6m shares (VND66.3bn).

Foreigners net bought on HOSE to the amount of VND1,436.7bn, while net sold on HNX to the amount of VND48.0bn. They mainly bought VHM (VND1763.3bn), PHR (VND60.3bn) and VCB (VND38.9bn); and mainly sold VGC (VND139.1bn), VNM (VND64.5bn) and VHM (VND53.9bn).

Oil slides from five-month high on warnings about recovery

Oil declined from a five-month high in New York with the U.S. Federal Reserve and OPEC+ sounding caution on the demand recovery as many countries struggle to contain the coronavirus. Futures fell about 1% below US$43/barrel amid a broader slide in equities after minutes from the Fed said the pandemic would weigh heavily on economic activity, repeating its view that the recovery would depend on containment of the virus. OPEC+ also warned at a meeting Wednesday that the pace of the demand rebound was slower than expected and at risk from a prolonged second wave of the outbreak, while also urging laggards to adhere to their output pledges. Oil has inched higher recently after a rally stalled in June, but is struggling to push past US$43/barrel as surging infections raise doubts about a sustained recovery in consumption. (Bloomberg)

Steel manufacturer has US$1.1bn thanks to huge public investment package

Strong cash flow to the stock market, a VND700tr package for public investment, and high demand for ingot steel from China have all helped billionaire Tran Dinh Long pocket more money despite the Covid-19 crisis. According to the Vietnam Steel Association (VSA), Vietnam is the only ASEAN country expected to obtain positive GDP growth in 2020. The government has been trying to accelerate public investment to boost economic development. This will bring great opportunities to steel manufacturing companies. VSA estimated that in July alone, 2.1m tons of steel were produced, an increase of 7.7% over the year before and the same as July 2019. Nearly 1,956 tons of steel of different kinds sold in the month, an increase of 11.25% over June and a decrease of 3.6% compared with the same period last year. This included 424,700 tons of exports, up by 41.37% over the month before and 16.2% over the same period last year.

Hoa Phat Group (HPG) of Tran Dinh Long and Hoa Sen Group (HSG) of Le Phuoc Vu both reported good business results, while other small and medium enterprises had gloomy business performance. In 1H20, Hoa Phat reported revenue of VND39.7tr and post-tax profit of VND5.06tr, increasing by 30% and 31%, respectively, compared with the same period last year. The HPG share price soared from VND13,300/share on March 27 to VND24,350/share on August 18. This helped Long's stock asset value increase by hundreds of million of dollars to US$1.1bn, according to Forbes. The 80% increase helped Hoa Phat's capitalization value increase by US$1.6-1.7bn within a short time. Analysts said some large steel manufacturers still made high profits during the pandemic because the increased public investment in steel demand sharply. Also, manufacturers have increased steel and ingot steel exports to China and regional markets. According to Bao Viet Securities, the VND700tr public investment package is hoped to create motivation for construction activities from 2021. Meanwhile, input materials for steel manufacturing, such as coal and flat steel billets, are on the decrease, which will ensure high profits for manufacturers. Earlier, analysts had predicted that 2020 would be a prosperous year for the steel industry with opportunities from CPTPP and EVFTA. At the HPG annual shareholders' meeting, its managers said the consumption of structural steel in the domestic market may decrease, but that ingot steel exports are expected to increase sharply. The exports can bring profit of VND300,000-1m/ton. (vietnamnet.vn)
