

Market commentary: The VN-INDEX hit 5-month low as Financials stocks plummeted

The VN-INDEX fell 1.2% to the lowest level since late Jun 2019 as large caps faced strong sell-off waves. The index started off in the green and quickly rose to its intraday peak of 972.9pts (+0.2%). However, it gradually lost steam throughout the rest of the trading session as selling pressure emerged and dominated on many large caps. Specifically, Financials large caps faced steep falls, with VCB, BID and CTG losing 2.1%, 2.7% and 3.2%, respectively. The three stocks wiped a combined 3.8pts off the index. Other large caps from Utilities and Consumer Staples sectors also slumped, including GAS (-2.5%) and VNM (-2.6%), and extended the downward momentum. On the positive note, some blue chips successfully kept upward momentum from the morning session to close up, led by SAB (+1.3%), VJC (+0.8%), HPG (+0.4%) and HVN (+0.4%). However, these advancers were far surpassed by the other bearish large caps. Hence, the VN-INDEX lost 11.4pts to land at 959.3pts (-1.2%), the lowest level since 28 Jun when it ended at 949.9pts, and the HNX-INDEX also lost 1.6pts to close at 100.9pts (-1.6%).

Materials (+0.2%), Health Care (+0.2%) rose while IT (-3.1%), Financials (-2.3%) and Utilities (-1.7%) dropped. Top index movers included SAB (+1.3%), VJC (+0.8%), HPG (+0.4%), VHC (+3.8%) and HVN (+0.4%). Top index laggards consisted of VCB (-2.1%), VNM (-2.6%), GAS (-2.5%), BID (-2.7%) and CTG (-3.2%). Top three major put-through transactions were ROS with 10.1m shares (VND262.1bn), VCP with 2.3m shares (VND149.5bn) and PHR with 2.0m shares (VND106.1bn).

Foreigners net sold on HOSE to the amount of VND13.0bn, and also net sold on HNX to the amount of VND6.5bn. They mainly bought VNM (VND68.7bn), VHM (VND56.4bn) and VRE (VND49.3bn); and mainly sold VNM (VND90.4bn), ROS (VND64.6bn) and VHM (VND38.9bn).

Market News

Russia pumps above OPEC+ target in Nov as meeting nears. Russia, one of the key architects of the OPEC+ deal to curb oil output, will have little to shout about when the producer group gathers in Vienna later this week. Nov became the eighth month this year the country failed to meet its oil production curb obligations under the agreement. The nation pumped 46.019m tons of crude and condensate last month, according to preliminary data from the Energy Ministry's CDU-TEK unit. That equals a daily average of 11.244m barrels -- based on a 7.33 barrels-per-ton ratio -- which is 54,000 barrels per day more than it pledged to reduce output by under the OPEC+ deal. Investors willing to spend billions of USD to build airports in Vietnam. However, the door has still not opened widely to private investors who want to develop airports. The Ministry of Transport (MOT) on November 7 signed a decision approving the VND5.903tr plan on adjusting Sa Pa Airport development in Lao Cai province. This will be a domestic airport used for both civil and military purposes, with capacity of 3m passengers a year. In July 2019, at a working session with Prime Minister Nguyen Xuan Phuc, the province proposed Phuc to approve the PPP (private public partnership) investment mode. If PPP is implemented, the central budget would provide VND3.088tr, while VND910.6bn would be from the local budget. The Vietnam Air Traffic Management Corporation (VATM) would invest VND131bn. Meanwhile, VND1.772tr would come from private investors. Minister of Transport Nguyen Van The said other airports including Lai Chau and Na San also need private investments. Under Decision No 236 approved by the Prime Minister earlier this year, from now to 2030, Vietnam would have 28 airports, including 15 national and 13 international airports. Vietnam now has 22 airports. Except Van Don, developed by private investors, the other 21 airports are put under the management of the Airports Corporation of Vietnam (ACV). As such, Vietnam would have at least six new airports in the next 10 years. Meanwhile, a series of projects on upgrading airports have been proposed with total required investment capital of billions of dollars. Analysts said as the state budget is limited and warnings about high public debts have been given, capital from private sources proves to be the most feasible solution. "In the aviation sector, we are willing to invite private investors. As for Dien Bien Airport, in case ACV cannot invest, we will use private investments to upgrade Dien Bien," The said at the Private Economic Forum held last May. Many provinces have asked for permission to develop airports in their localities with private investments. Rang Dong JSC has been chosen by Binh Thuan provincial authorities as the investor of Phan Thiet Airport, capitalized at VND10.272tr in the first phase. The joint name of Van Phu Invest and VCI are seeking permission to invest in Go Gang Airport in Vung Tau, capitalized at $1bn. Meanwhile, Loc An Airport would be developed by Ho Tram Project Co Ltd with the investment capital of VND4.25tr. Vietjet, a private air carrier, expressed its willingness to implement Dien Bien and Cat Bi expansion projects, but it has not received approval. Quang Binh provincial authorities have proposed that MOT accept FLC to upgrade Dong Hoi Airport. (Vietnamnews.net)

Notable Corporate Events

JSC Bank For Investment And Development Of Vietnam (BID VN) – Bond Issuance: BID has raised VND1,200bn via an issue of six-year non-convertible bonds to supplement the bank's capital, a report said. The debts have a floating coupon based on the average Vietnamese dong deposit rate offered by four major domestic banks plus 1.3% p.a. (Ndh.vn)
