Vietnam's forestry export to hit record $11.3bn in 2019. The forestry sector expects to earn an estimated US$11.3bn from exports this year, a year-on-year rise of 20 percent, according to Deputy Minister of Agriculture and Rural Development Ha Cong Tuan. This would be the highest growth rate in the sector's history, he said, adding that the sector is also expected to enjoy a trade surplus of approximately US$8bn, thus contributing significantly to the agriculture sector's overall growth. Vietnam's forest products have been exported to over 140 countries and territories worldwide, he said. The country's main export markets include the United States, Japan, China, the European Union, and the Republic of Korea, which together account for more than 80 percent of the nation's total export value of forest products. There are over 4,500 firms operating in wood and forest product processing, of which over 1,800 firms are directly involved in export activities. (Vietnamnet.vn)
