

Market commentary: The VN-INDEX retreated as blue chips face strong selling pressure in late trading.

The VN-INDEX eased 0.2% as Financials large caps lost ground, and the HNX-INDEX also fell 0.6%. The VN-INDEX began the day in the green, having brought forward the positive sentiment from the previous session, and gradually rose to its intraday high of 970.9 (+0.4%). A strong support came from Real Estate sector, with VIC and VHM increasing 0.3% and 0.4%, respectively. Other large caps from Food & Beverage sector also gained, led by VNM (+0.3%) and MSN (+0.9%). However, following the correction of Asian stocks in the afternoon session as investors raised caution about the tension between the United States and Iran, a selling pressure suddenly emerged and overwhelmed on many large caps, thus pulling the VN-INDEX below the reference price level. Specifically, market pillars from Financials and Retail sectors suffered losses, including VCB (-1.0%), BID (-0.4%) and CTG (-0.9%). As a result, the VN-INDEX lost 1.8pts (-0.2%) to land at 965.1pts, while the HNX-INDEX fell deeper to close at 102.4pts (-0.6%).

Energy (+0.9%), Consumer Staples (+0.5%) and Real Estate (+0.1%) rose while IT (-1.5%), Financials (-0.7%) and Consumer Discretionary (-0.6%) dropped. Top index movers included VIC (+0.3%), VHM (+0.4%), PLX (+1.1%), VNM (+0.3%) and MSN (+0.9%). Top index laggards consisted of VCB (-1.0%), NVL (-2.6%), BID (-0.4%), MWG (-1.5%) and CTG (-0.9%). Top three major put-through transactions were MML with 4.0m shares (VND300.0bn), QNS with 5.2m shares (VND150.0bn) and DIG with 8.1m shares (VND110.3bn).

Foreigners net bought on HOSE to the amount of VND138.6bn, while net sold on HNX to the amount of VND7.5bn. They mainly bought HPG (VND122.9bn), VRE (VND40.9bn) and VNM (VND39.2bn); and mainly sold PVD (VND25.0bn), VCI (VND20.0bn) and HDB (VND13.9bn).

Market News

Oil jumps as U.S. strike on Iran general raises conflict fears. Oil jumped close to US$70 a barrel after a U.S. airstrike ordered by President Donald Trump killed a top Iranian general in Iraq, intensifying fears of conflict in the world's most important crude-producing region. In a turbulent start to the Asian day marked by unusually heavy trading, futures in London and New York surged by more than 4% to levels not seen since the attacks on Saudi Arabia's infrastructure in September. The strike near Baghdad airport killed Qassem Soleimani, the Iranian general who led the Revolutionary Guards' Quds force, according to a Defense Department statement. While no oil installations or production were impacted, the killing of one of Iran's most powerful generals is a provocation that ratchets up tension. (Bloomberg)

Vietnam's wood exports poised to hit US$12bn mark ahead in 2020. Vietnam's wood exports are predicted to reach US$12bn during the course of 2020 following the wood processing industry's great success during 2019, according to the Ministry of Industry and Trade. October last year saw the country's export turnover of wood and wooden products exceed US$1bn for the first time. By mid-November, the export value of the products had begun to outstrip 2018's record figure of US$8.907bn before breaking the US$9bn mark for the first time by the end of November. Mid-December saw the export turnover of wood and wood products reach approximately US$10bn with the year's final figure projected to surpass the US$10bn mark for the first time. The Ministry of Industry and Trade noted that the wood industry is likely to achieve the export target of US$12bn during the course of 2020. Aside from the largest market being the United States, exports of wood and wood products are expected to enjoy substantial growth in a number of important markets globally, including Japan, the United Kingdom, Canada, Germany, and the Netherlands. The robust growth can be attributed to the fact that Japan and Canada are member states of the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership (CPTPP), which has helped domestic firms take full advantage of the trade deal's reduced tariffs and make greater inroads into these markets. At present, the European Union (EU) represents one of the main export markets for the nation's wood and wooden products. With the EU-Vietnam Free Trade Agreement (EVFTA) poised to be approved and take effect, the country's wood products are set to become more competitive as a result of the reduction in tariff barriers in line with the roadmap.
