Market News

Oil jumps after unrest hits key OPEC Producers Iraq and Libya. Oil jumped back above US$65 a barrel as supply disruptions in Iraq and Libya reignited concerns over the market's vulnerability to geopolitical risk in key production regions. Futures rose more than 1.7% in London and New York after Libya's oil production almost ground to a halt as armed forces closed a pipeline, shuttering output from the nation's biggest oil project. Meanwhile in Iraq, output stopped at a field on Sunday, with supply from a second site threatened as unrest escalates in OPEC's second-biggest producer. (Bloomberg)

Vietnam aims for US$9bn worth of fishery exports in 2020. Vietnam has targeted to earn US$9bn from fishery exports in 2020, a year-on-year increase of 7%, according to the Directorate of Fisheries. Vietnam's aquatic product export value reached US$8.6bn USD in 2019, down 2.3% from the previous year. However, Vietnam's seafood export value reached US$3.2bn last year, an 8% increase from a year earlier, the highest rate ever, according to the Vietnam Association of Seafood Exporters and Producers. Tuna contributed US$728m to the total exports, a year-on-year increase of 12%, while exports of other saltwater fish reached US$1.65bn, representing 19.4% of the total and surging 15.8% yoy. The United States, the European Union and ASEAN remained the largest buyers of Vietnamese tuna, importing 71% of the total last year compared to 67% in 2018. The United States topped the markets with 46%. Exports of seafood and fishery products to the EU plunged by about 11.5% in 2019, with tuna and octopus experiencing the biggest contractions with 11% and 20%, respectively. From being the second largest importer of Vietnam's aquatic products, the EU fell to fifth, after the US, Japan, the Republic of Korea, and China, as a consequence of the EU's yellow card. (Vietnamnet.vn)
