

Market commentary: Concerns over coronavirus impact on Vietnam's economy dragged the VN-INDEX down further.

The VN-INDEX closed down 2.4% at the lowest level in nearly one year, with some large caps including VNM, VJC and HVN hitting the floor price, as concerns over the coronavirus impact on Vietnam's economy rose. Vietnam's main stock index extended its downward trend following the WHO declaration of a public health emergency of international concern. The VN-INDEX plummeted right after the opening bell, with most stocks starting off in the red. Specifically, VNM faced aggressive selling pressure and closed at the floor price, alone wiping 4.1pts off the index. Moreover, Aviation stocks slumped, with VJC and HVN declining 7.0% and 6.9%, respectively. The downward momentum was further extended in the afternoon session as the selling pressure dominated on other blue-chips, including BID, TCB, SAB and BVH. On the other hand, Health Care stocks continued to display impressive performance, with DHG and PME hitting the ceiling price, while there was a huge demand surplus. Furthermore, few large caps managed to land in the green, such as VHM (+0.1%) and CTG (+0.2%). However, these advancers were far surpassed by the bearish large caps. As a result, the VN-INDEX fell 2.4% to 936.6pts, the lowest level since 13 Feb, 2019 when it ended at 937.3pts, and the HNX-INDEX also lost 1.7% to close at 102.4pts.

Health Care (+5.1%) rose while Utilities (-5.1%), IT (-4.8%) and Energy (-4.3%) dropped. Top index movers included DHG (+7.0%), VHM (+0.1%), PME (+5.5%), CTD (+5.3%) and CTG (+0.2%). Top index laggards consisted of VNM (-7.0%), GAS (-6.0%), VJC (-7.0%), BID (-2.3%) and TCB (-5.7%). Top three major put-through transactions were ROS with 25.1m shares (VND240.8bn), VNM with 0.7m shares (VND81.2bn) and VJC with 0.5m shares (VND74.5bn).

Foreigners net bought on HOSE to the amount of VND28.5bn, and also net bought on HNX to the amount of VND2.6bn. They mainly bought VNM (VND93.8bn), VCB (VND68.6bn) and VHM (VND54.9bn); and mainly sold VNM (VND145.0bn), CTG (VND55.1bn) and VRE (VND47.7bn).

Market News

Oil rebounds after WHO says there's no need for travel bans. Oil jumped after the World Health Organization said there's no need for travel and trade bans due to the coronavirus, but was still set for its worst month since May as the outbreak sapped the demand outlook. The WHO declared a public health emergency of international concern, but said restrictions on commerce weren't necessary and that it had confidence in China's ability to control the virus. However, that was undercut by the U.S. government telling Americans not to travel to China. Crude got a further boost after a non-manufacturing purchasing managers' index in Asia's largest economy beat estimates, helping push futures in New York up as much as 2.3%. (Bloomberg)

Vietnam's Finance Ministry acts to improve business climate. The Ministry of Finance plans to hasten tax and customs administrative reforms this year to improve the business climate. This was a highlight of Minister Dinh Tien Dung's recent decision for an action programme to implement a National Assembly resolution about solutions to improve the business climate and national competitiveness. Accordingly, the ministry hopes to move up 7-10 spots in the World Bank's ranking of paying taxes and social insurance and up 5-10 spots in trading across borders. The ministry hopes to accelerate tax and customs administrative reforms, shorten procedures, modernise and use information technology in management to reduce the time spent conducting administrative procedures while ensuring transparency. The ministry aims to provide at least 30% of its public services online at level four, the highest level of online public services. To gain a higher ranking in paying tax, the ministry plans to review the tax legal document system, including regulations about tax exemptions for agricultural land as well as issuing detailed regulations about freezing tax debts, remission of fines for late payment and overdue payables of payers no longer able to pay taxes. In 2019, the ministry removed 49 administrative procedures, amended 23 and issued 38 new procedures. Vietnam's paying tax indicator jumped 22 spots from 131st to 109th out of 190 countries in the World Bank's ranking announced on October 24, 2019. The satisfaction of businesses about tax reforms also increased. A report by the Vietnam Chamber of Commerce and Industry announced in November 2019 showed 78% of surveyed firms said they were satisfied with tax reforms, 3% pts higher than the 2016 survey. The Ministry of Finance was always top of government agencies in administrative reforms. The ministry ranked second in the Public Administrative Reform Index released in May 2019 and topped the Vietnam ICT Index for the seven consecutive years among government ministries and ministerial-level agencies with public services.
