

Market commentary: The VN-INDEX edged up 0.3% despite profit taking

The VN-INDEX made a slight rise of 0.3% at its close today, extending the upward movement to the third session despite some profit taking activities. Picking up the momentum of the month's second-biggest jump made on Monday, Vietnam's main stock index began the session strongly, with most shares advancing. The rally was mainly propelled by Financials stock, among them VCB (+0.6%), BID (+1.3%) and CTG (+1.7%) contributed a combined 1.5pts to the index. Other large caps supported the market advance, led by SAB (+2.6%), HPG (+2.7%) and VRE (+1.3%). However, the VN-INDEX lost steam in the afternoon session due to some profit taking. Several blue chips fell, such as VIC (-0.4%), VNM (-0.4%), VPB (-1.4%) and MSN (-1.0%), putting a brake on the index gain. But finally, the VN-INDEX managed to close up slightly at 863.4pts (+0.3%), and the HNX-Index also edged up 0.6% to end at 113.7pts.

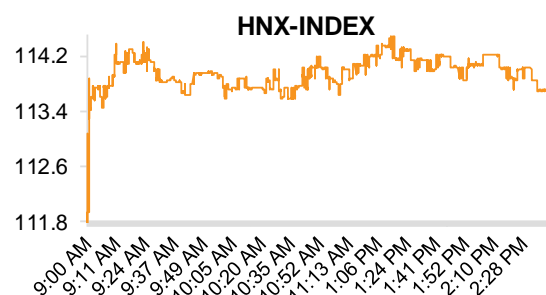

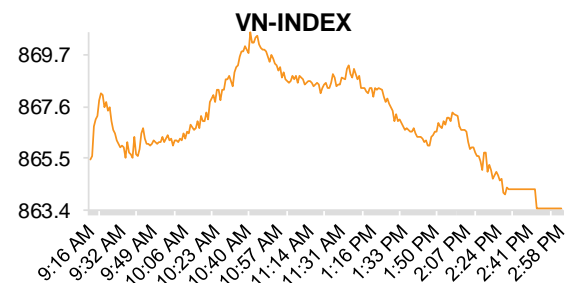

Materials (+1.6%), IT (+1.3%) and Financials (+0.5%) rose, while Real Estate (-0.1%) and Health Care (-0.1%) lost ground. Top index movers included SAB (+2.6%), HPG (+2.7%), BID (+1.3%), VCB (+0.6%) and CTG (+1.7%). Top index laggards consisted of VIC (-0.4%), GVR (-2.1%), VNM (-0.4%), VPB (-1.4%) and MSN (-1.0%). Top three major put-through transactions were VGC with 14.5m shares (VND273.3bn), MWG with 1.2m shares (VND105.2bn) and GEX with 6.0m shares (VND96.6bn).

Foreigners net bought on HOSE to the amount of VND58.2bn, while net sold on HNX to the amount of VND4.2bn. They mainly bought HPG (VND142.5bn), MWG (VND102.9bn) and PLX (VND87.7bn); and mainly sold HPG (VND124.7bn), MWG (VND102.9bn) and VCB (VND68.8bn).

Oil edges lower with U.S. gasoline stockpiles seen expanding

Oil edged lower toward US$40 a barrel before U.S. government data that's forecast to show gasoline stockpiles increased. U.S. gasoline supplies expanded by 1m barrels last week, according to a Bloomberg survey, while nationwide crude stockpiles are projected to have fallen for a second week. Official data is due Wednesday with industry figures expected later Tuesday. Meanwhile, rising coronavirus cases have forced major fuel-consuming states including California, Florida and Texas to reimpose measures such as shutting bars and banning indoor dining. Oil's recovery from its plunge below zero in April appears to have hit a wall with surging infections across major economies raising doubts about a swift demand rebound. Unprecedented supply cuts by OPEC and its allies that have supported prices so far are set to wind down next month and producers are yet to decide on whether to extend the curbs. West Texas Intermediate for August delivery fell 0.5% to US$40.42/barrel on the New York Mercantile Exchange as of 10:43 a.m. Singapore time after closing 2 cents lower on Monday; There was no settlement on Friday due to public holiday in the U.S. Brent for September settlement dropped 0.5% to US$42.88 on the ICE Futures Europe exchange; Brent's three-month timespread was 51 cents in contango, where prompt prices are cheaper than later-dated contracts, the widest since June 24. U.S. gasoline stockpiles rose for a second week, according to the survey, which would see inventories at the highest level in a month. Supplies of distillates, a category that includes diesel, increased by 500,000 barrels, while crude stocks fell by 3m barrels. (Bloomberg)

Big investors pouring money into Vietnam's manufacturing industry

Instead of injecting money into the real estate or service sector which allows profit after a short time, Vietnam's most powerful corporations are investing in the processing and manufacturing industry. After opening an electrical equipment factory worth VND600bn some months ago, Ho Quynh Hung, chair of Dien Quang Lamp JSC, said this was part of a plan to increase locally made content in products. The company is also installing a workshop that makes electronic circuit boards for lamps and other devices with eight production lines. Dien Quang has a high demand for chips. In the immediate time, the company will install one production line first. When it has eight production lines, the capacity will be high enough to provide chips to the company, but also to other domestic enterprises. Established as a construction contractor, Amaccao recently made a big investment in industrial production, producing lighting equipment, copper valves and plastic pipes. To Van Nhat, CEO of Amaccao, said seven years ago, he realized that many Vietnamese were willing to spend big money to buy expensive products from Europe. He decided to build a factory with modern equipment to make products in Vietnam. A lot of Vietnamese names have appeared recently in the processing and manufacturing industry, such as Truong Hai, VinFast (automobile), BKAV (smartphones) and Hoa Phat (steel), creating a new face for the industry. However, Vietnam's industry is still small and weak, and the components needed to make automobiles and smartphones are still sourced from imports or foreign invested enterprises. (Vietnamnet.vn)

Notable Corporate Events

An Phat Bioplastics JSC (AAA VN HOSE) – Warrant sale: An Phat to Holdings Group (APH VN Unlisted) said it has sought to raise at least VND15bn via selling 1,000 warrants, each can be used to buy 10,000 shares newly issued by AAA, an APH subsidiary. The warrant holding right can be transferred between 9 Jul and 7 Aug. (Ndh.vn)
