

Market commentary: VN-INDEX in biggest fall since mid-Jun over new COVID-19 in community

The VN-INDEX fell 3.2%, the strongest slump in nearly six weeks, as investors unloaded stocks over fears of the second wave of outbreaks after the government confirmed a new infection in a local community. The Health Ministry said on Friday several tests showed the resident in the central beach city of Danang who fell sick with coughing and fever had been infected with the coronavirus, while the source of the transmission remained unclear. The case ended Vietnam's 99-day streak without local infection. The market reacted negatively to the news, with a sale-off hitting all sectors and pushing blue chips down to the floor, including CTD (-7.0%), PNJ (-5.1%), and MWG (-4.65). Real Estate and Financials stocks were the largest laggards, led by VHM (-3.6%), VIC (-2.2%), VCB (-1.8%) and BID (-4.1%). At one stage the index hit the intraday low of 816.6pts (-4.7%), the lowest in 11 weeks. However it made a recovery of 12.5pts thanks to bottom-fishing activities in late trading. Finally the VN-INDEX fell 3.2%, the biggest drop since its 15 Jun slide of 3.6%, to close at 829.2pts. Today's close is also the lowest since 30 Jun when it ended at 825.1pts. In Hanoi, the HNX-INDEX made a similar pattern and landed down at 109.3pts (-4.0%).

All sectors lost ground today, led by Consumer Discretionary (-4.4%), Industrials (-4.1%) and IT (-4.1%). Top index movers included DAT (+6.9%), POM (+6.0%), PGD (+2.9%), DHG (+0.7%) and NLG (+1.0%). Top index laggards consisted of VHM (-3.6%), VIC (-2.2%), BID (-4.1%), VCB (-1.8%) and VNM (-2.7%). Top three major put-through transactions were LDG with 47.5m shares (VND292.9bn), NLG with 3.1m shares (VND75.3bn), and E1VFN30 with 3.7m shares (VND48.5bn).

Foreigners net bought on HOSE to the amount of VND226.1bn, and also net bought on HNX to the amount of VND4.3bn. They mainly bought VRE (VND84.7bn), NLG (VND61.7bn) and VNM (VND61.6bn); and mainly sold VNM (VND101bn), DXG (VND54.9bn) and VIC (VND49.6bn).

Market News

Oil fluctuates near US$41 amid demand uncertainty, European growth

Oil swung between gains and losses as deteriorating U.S.-China relations cast doubt over the strength of the demand recovery, but European economic data showed a return to growth. U.S. crude futures rose 0.9%, poised to eke out a second weekly gain as the news of euro-area growth added to confidence already buoyed by stimulus measures agreed Tuesday. Yet strained U.S.-China ties continued to cloud the outlook, with Beijing ordering America to close its consulate in Chengdu. Oil's recovery from its plunge below zero has stalled, with futures stuck in a tight range since the end of June as rising coronavirus infections across major economies raise doubts that demand can rebound swiftly. U.S. crude stockpiles are climbing, Chinese consumption is cooling and swaths of India's refining sector are offline, adding to the bearish headwinds. (Bloomberg)

Struggling to survive, businesses try to develop niche markets

Despite the pandemic, some businesses are thriving because they have changed business strategies by developing niche markets. Covid-19 has dealt a strong blow on the global economy, including Vietnam. The Ministry of Planning and Investment's (MPI) report released in early June pointed out that in the first four months of the year, the number of newly established businesses decreased 13.2% compared with the same period last year, while the number of businesses suspending their operation temporarily increased 33.6%. However, many enterprises have been prospering thanks to new business strategies. Truong Gia Binh, chair of the Vietnam Digital Agriculture Association (VIDA), at a workshop held in April, said the solution is seeking opportunities in niche markets. Ministries and state management agencies also believe that conquering niche markets is a wise strategy for now. The Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism has launched the 'Vietnamese travel Vietnam' campaign, urging travel firms to exploit the domestic market. Meanwhile, the Vietnam Fatherland Front's Central Committee has launched the 'Buy Vietnamese goods' campaign. In the real estate market, while many developers have suffered from slow sales due to low demand, others have taken a wise move by developing apartment projects at reasonable costs. They understand that unlike high-end resorts or apartments, demand for affordable products is high. Meanwhile, CBRE believes that niche markets such as automated logistics and cold storage will see a sharp rise in the time to come. There will be more clients that will need to lease cold storage systems because of the increase in consumption and the rise of omni-channel distribution of fresh food. In the textile and garment industry, many companies, instead of sitting idle because of the lack of orders from importers, have found opportunities in niche markets when making cloth face masks and specialized protective clothing for domestic consumption and export. In the aviation sector, the newcomer Bamboo Airways decided to focus on niche markets. Instead of 'squeezing' into crowded airports in Ho Chi Minh City and Hanoi, the air carrier focused on connecting destinations that have great tourism potential. (Vietnamnet.vn)
