Market News

Oil extends rally as G-7 and OPEC+ step up response to virus. Oil extended its rebound from last week's slump as global policy makers pledged to safeguard markets from the coronavirus, while OPEC and its allies are expected to deepen production cuts. Futures in New York have now recouped more than a third of last week's 16% plunge in a reversal that's come amid a broad move upward in financial markets driven by signs major economies will act to soften the impact from the virus. Group of Seven finance ministers and monetary officials will speak by teleconference on Tuesday, while OPEC+ meets in Vienna from Thursday. (Bloomberg)

Vietnam to develop large-scale SOEs. The government has asked the Ministry of Planning and Investment to build a project on developing large-scale state-owned enterprises (SOEs) to promote their role in the country's socio-economic development. In the government's Resolution No 18/NQ-CP on Wednesday, the ministry was asked to complete and submit the project for approval this year. The project must focus on promoting SOEs to take the leading role in establishing and expanding domestic, regional and global production and value chains. Transparency in the operation of SOEs must also be enhanced. Some large-scale SOEs would be developed. They must have efficiency in operation and able to compete in key sectors of the economy. The legal framework for SOEs would be reviewed for amendments with an aim to encourage renovations and efficiency. Besides, the Commission for the Management of State Capital at Enterprises (SMSC) would take charge from the Ministry of Industry and Trade to handle problems at the ministry's 12 inefficient and stagnant projects. The resolution also pushed the SMSC to build a master strategy about investing and developing enterprises under its management. (Vietnamnet.vn)
