

Market commentary: Vietnam's stock indices dropped as large caps faced aggressive selling

The VN-INDEX fell 4.9% to the lowest in nearly a week amid investors' mounting concerns over the negative impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the global economy. The Dow Jones Industrial Average Index fell 4.1% last Friday after doubts about the fate of the U.S. economy resurfaced and the number of coronavirus cases in the country climbed. In Vietnam, the VN-INDEX plummeted right after the opening bell, with most stocks starting off in the red. VIC became the largest laggard as its share price dropped 6.2% to VND81,400, alone wiping 5.2pts off the index. Other Real Estate stocks landing at floor price included VHM (-7.0%) and VRE (-6.9%). Financials stocks also slumped and further exacerbated the bearish sentiment, including VCB (-4.8%) and BID (-6.4%). Just several stocks avoided the sell-off wave and ended up, notably HPG (+0.9%), PME (+3.6%) and HPX (+2.3%). However, they failed to reverse the market slide. As a result, the VN-INDEX slid 4.9% to 662.3pts, the lowest since 24 Mar when it closed at 659.2pts, and the HNX-INDEX also lost 4.2% to end at 93.3pts.

All sectors declined today, including IT (-5.8%), Financials (-5.7%) and Real Estate (-5.6%). Top index movers included HPG (+0.9%), PME (+3.6%), HPX (+2.3%), DBC (+6.8%) and HVG (+6.9%). Top index laggards consisted of VIC (-6.2%), VHM (-7.0%), VCB (-4.8%), BID (-6.4%) and GAS (-6.2%). Top three major put-through transactions were GAB with 1.5m shares (VND204.4bn), FPT with 2.6m shares (VND120.2bn) and GEX with 8.3m shares (VND105.0bn).

Foreigners net sold on HOSE to the amount of VND164.5bn, and also net sold on HNX to the amount of VND8.1bn. They mainly bought FPT (VND120.2bn), VNM (VND106.9bn), VCB (VND63.8bn); and mainly sold FPT (VND120.2bn), VNM (VND89.1bn) and SVC (VND84.9bn).

Market News

Oil plummets to 17-year low as broken market drowns in crude. Oil slumped to a 17-year low as coronavirus lockdowns cascaded through the world's largest economies, leaving the market overwhelmed by cratering demand and a ballooning surplus of crude. Futures in London fell as much as 7.6% to the lowest since November 2002, while New York crude briefly dipped below US$20 a barrel. Physical oil markets are struggling to store fuel, hit by a double whammy of virus restrictions eroding demand and a damaging war for market share between Saudi Arabia and Russia that has prices on track for the worst quarter on record. Vietnam gains higher exports to Canada, Mexico partly due to CPTPP. Vietnam has taken full advantage of the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership (CPTPP) to gain strong growth in exports to Canada and Mexico, according to the Ministry of Industry and Trade (MoIT). These are the two CPTPP members that have not yet signed bilateral free trade agreement (FTAs) with Vietnam. In the first two months of this year, Vietnam's exports to Canada rose 20.39% to US$578m yoy. With over 37m people, a high standard of living and an urbanisation rate at 80%, Canada is considered a potential market for many key export items of Vietnam, including textiles, footwear, seafood, tea, pepper, cashew nut, coffee and wooden furniture. During the first two months, textile and apparel export value reached more than US$100m, up 5.86% yoy. The export value of mobile phones and accessories surged 104.22% to US$122.09m compared to the same period last year. Other products with strong growth in exports included the group of iron and steel and plastic materials with rates of 153.69% and 354.06% yoy, respectively. Vietnam's export value to Mexico reached US$497.2m in the first two months. Of which, many products gained high export value, including computers, electronic products and components (US$133.6m), telephones and components (US$122.6m), shoes and sandals (US$47.5m), textiles and garments (US$16.3m), machinery, equipment and other spare parts (US$34.5m), vehicles and spare parts (US$35.2m). Assessing the implementation of FTAs to promote exports, especially the CPTPP, Luong Hoang Thai, director of the MoIT's Department of Multilateral Trade Policy, told the Dau tu (Investment) newspaper that Vietnam's enterprises have efficiently exploited markets with which Vietnam has not yet signed FTAs. In fact, Vietnam's enterprises have done more than expected, taking full advantage of the CPTPP, Thai said. In 2019, Vietnam gained high growth in exports from the CPTPP countries, especially Canada and Mexico, while the agreement came into effect on January 14, 2019. The country gained a yoy growth of 26-29% in export value to Canada and Mexico last year, he said. The CPTPP has partly contributed to the strong growth in exports of Vietnam so the country had a trade surplus of US$1.6bn with the CPTPP market last year. Before this agreement, Vietnam had a total trade deficit of US$900m with this market, said Thai. Meanwhile, the General Department of Customs said Vietnam still recorded a trade surplus of US$1bn in the first half of March 2020, even during the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. In the first half of March, Vietnam's total trade value reached US$21.47bn, including export value of US$11.2bn and import value of US$10.3bn. Therefore, the country achieved a total trade value of US$97.85bn in the period from January 1 to March 15, up 4.4% yoy. It had a trade surplus of US$2.74bn. Of which, the export value recorded US$50.29bn, up 6.8% and the import value was US$47.55bn, up 1.9%. During the period from January 1 until March 15, goods with high export growth included phones and components (US$10.2bn); computers, electronic products and components (US$7bn); machinery, equipment, tools and other spare parts (US$3.93bn); seafood (US$1.26bn); textiles and garments (US$5.88bn); footwear (US$3.42bn); timber and wood products (US$2.1bn); and vehicles and spare parts (US$1.76bn).
