Market News

Oil anchored near us$33/barrel amid rising U.S.-China tensions. Oil was anchored near US$33/barrel as an escalating war of words between the U.S. and China added to caution over the prospects for a global recovery in demand. China warned on Sunday that some in the U.S. were pushing the countries toward a new Cold War, stoking concerns that deteriorating relations between Beijing and Washington could complicate the market's recovery from a historic demand crash. Futures edged higher in New York after falling earlier, with trading volumes thin due to holidays in the U.S., U.K. and Singapore. However, there are signs the oil market is positioning itself for a recovery. U.S. shale drillers have cut the number of active rigs to the lowest since 2009, trimming output further. This comes as OPEC+ slashes output by almost 10 million barrels a day in an effort to reduce a glut. Oil has surged about 75% this month as pockets of demand return in China and India after the easing of lockdown restrictions, and as U.S. crude inventories start to decline. But, the recovery is expected to be long and uncertain, with the risk of a second wave of infections possibly complicating a rebound. (Bloomberg)

Vietnamese shrimp exporters see bright future despite Covid-19

Vietnam's shrimp exports in Q1 had export turnover of US$660m, a 2% increase from the same period last year, according to the General Department of Customs (GDC). According to Truong Dinh Hoe, secretary general of the Vietnam Association of Seafood Exporters and Producers (VASEP), the figure was US$780mn, and if counting the export turnover of US$270m in April, Vietnam might earn US$1m in the last four months from shrimp exports. Of 34 shrimp export companies which make up 70% of total shrimp export turnover, 20 companies reported 0.3-87% growth rates compared with the same period last year, and 14 companies reported export decline of 10% on average. Truong Dinh Hoe said the export turnover in Q4 is always double that of the first quarter, so he believes that shrimp exports will recover this year. Regarding export markets, Truong Dinh Hoe said Japan and the United States saw relatively high growth rates in Q1, while the EU and China saw sharp decline. However, these markets have shown signs of strong recovery. Truong Dinh Hoe is optimistic about the shrimp export prospects this year because the predicted 50% shrimp output has decreased in India and Ecuador, the biggest rivals of Vietnam. The exports to the US increased rapidly partially because of the decline from India," he said. Nhu Van Can from the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development said despite the difficulties caused by Covid-19, Vietnam's shrimp industry has set the same production and export goals as last year. It is expected that the shrimp farming area would reach 730,000 hectares and the output would be 830,000 tonnes. Tran Quoc Tuan, vice president of Vietnam-Australia Seafood Group, said small shrimp (50-60 shrimp/kilogram) are now in short supply because of the increased demand. Le Van Quang, president of Minh Phu Group, said the world market, especially the EU, has high demand for small-size shrimp (60-150 shrimp/kilogram). He said large retail chains such as Walmart consume small shrimp products in large quantities, while restaurants, the biggest consumers of large shrimp, have suspended operation because of Covid-19. As a result, the price of large shrimp is now equal to small products. (Vietnamnet.vn)
