

Market commentary: The VN-INDEX made biggest fall in 5 weeks as profit taking activities overwhelmed

The VN-INDEX lost 1.3%, the biggest fall since 21 Apr, as aggressive selling pushed down large caps, especially those in Financials and Materials sectors, and the HNX-INDEX also dropped 1.5%. Despite a positive performance on the U.S. stock market the previous night with the Dow Jones Industrial Average Index jumping 2.2%, Vietnam's main stock index began the session cautiously and quickly dipped below the reference price level, following the strongest gain in a week reached yesterday. The index further slumped towards the end of the trading session as selling pressure spread across the market despite a rebound by several blue chips, such as VCB (+0.5%), HVN (+2.4%) and NVL (+0.7%). Materials was today's worst performing sector, with HPG losing 4.2%. Financials sector also had a disappointing trading day, with BID and VPD decreasing 5.2% and 4.8%, respectively Other market pillars bolstered the fall, including VNM (-2.2%) and VHM (-2.2%). The laggards far surpassed the bullish large caps, thus forcing the VN-INDEX to drop 1.3%, the biggest correction since 21 Apr when it fell 3.5%, to close at the intraday low of 857.5pts. The HNX-INDEX also slid 1.5% to close at 108.9pts.

Most sectors dropped today, including Materials (-2.8%), Financials (-1.9%) and Consumer Discretionary (-1.7%). Top index movers included VCB (+0.5%), HVN (+2.4%), NVL (+0.7%), CTD (+7.0%) and EIB (+1.8%). Top index laggards consisted of BID (-5.2%), VHM (-2.2%), VNM (-2.2%), HPG (-4.2%) and VPB (-4.8%). Top three major put-through transactions were VIC with 1.6m shares (VND154.1bn), NTC with 0.7m shares (VND137.2bn), EIB with 3.9m shares (VND70bn).

Foreigners net sold on HOSE to the amount of VND115.1bn, and net bought on HNX to the amount of VND3.1bn. They mainly bought HPG (VND73.5bn), VRE (VND68bn) and VHM (VND42bn); and mainly sold HPG (VND156.7bn), VRE (VND95.6bn) and VHM(VND45bn).

Market News

Oil halts rally near US$34 on signs Russia may ease supply cuts. Oil slipped from the highest settlement in 11 weeks on signs Russia was planning to start easing supply cuts from July, while tensions between the U.S. and China escalated amid the specter of sanctions. Futures fell 0.8% in New York after closing above US$34 a barrel for the first time since March. Moscow wants to scale back curbs in line with the OPEC+ deal, according to people familiar with the matter, but a Kremlin spokesman said that Russia would analyze the market before making a decision. Meanwhile, U.S.-China relations have deteriorated further as Washington considered sanctions to punish Beijing for its crackdown on Hong Kong. At the same time, the outlook for the physical oil market continued to improve. Nigeria and Algeria have lifted the official selling prices for their crude, a sign that they believe customers are willing to pay more for their barrels, while U.S. stockpiles are expected to extend declines. ### EVFTA to help Vietnam cover some economic losses from pandemic

The EU-Vietnam Free Trade Agreement (EVFTA), to take effect shortly, is expected to make up for some of the losses Vietnam's economy incurred during the COVID-19 pandemic, according to insiders.

The EU is the world's second-largest importer, purchasing about US$2.338tr worth of goods from overseas annually, only 2% of which is from Vietnam. Just over 42% of Vietnam's exports to the EU, meanwhile, benefit from zero-% tariffs under the Generalised System of Preferences. Given this, and with strong commitments made to market opening and the elimination of almost all import tariffs in the EVFTA, the opportunities for Vietnam to bolster its exports are huge, especially for commodities where it possesses strengths, such as textiles and garments, leather and footwear, agricultural and fisheries products, and wooden items, experts have noted. A recent study indicates that the trade deal will help raise shipments to the EU by some 20% in 2020, 42.7% in 2025, and 44.37% in 2030. Vietnam's imports from the EU will also increase but at a slower pace than exports, at about 15.28% in 2020, 33.06% in 2025, and 36.7% in 2030. The EVFTA will help boost Vietnam's GDP by an average of 2.18-3.25% in 2019-2023, 4.57-5.3% in 2024-2028, and 7.07-7.72% in 2029-2033. Local producers will benefit a great deal from high-quality input materials, machinery, and technology from the EU at more reasonable prices, which will subsequently help promote productivity and product quality. Imports of goods and services from the bloc will also generate competition, encouraging Vietnamese businesses to work harder to improve their competitiveness. Experts added that new value chains between Vietnam and the bloc will take shape under the EVFTA. (Vietnamnet.vn)
