Strong selling pressure caused Vietnam Stock Markets to dip in red amid rising liquidity. After hovering around the reference level, VN-INDEX lost momentum and slipped following the retreat in the majority of large caps. Notably, there was a significant divergence among Food & Beverage stocks. Particularly, SAB and BHN led today's advancers on the news regarding the government's privatization plan. Meanwhile, VNM – the largest decliner- extended its previous losses for a second consecutive day due to the foreigners accelerating sell-offs. MSN also fell after the news about its subsidiary MSR violating laws and regulation in its mineral exploitation and processing project. Moreover, amid the uncertainty in oil prices, Energy and Utilities sectors pulled back, driven by GAS and PLX. Financial tickers (including CTG, VCB, BID, MBB, EIB and BVH) were also affected by the bearish sentiment and dropped dramatically. As a consequence, VN-INDEX shed 8.69pts to end at 768.91pts (-1.12%) with 85 winners, 191 losers and 59 unchanged. On the other hand, HNX-INDEX ended the gloomy trading by closing marginally lower at 98.64pts (-1.78%) with 77 gainers, 131 laggards and 168 unchanged.

Most sectors sunk in red, led by Financials (-2.36%), Materials (-2.22%), and Health Care (-1.96%). Only Consumer Staples (+0.24%) increased. Regarding tickers, top index laggards included VNM (-2.06%), GAS (-2.20%), CTG (-2.84%), VCB (-1.44%), and PLX (-1.86%).
